

ABiz SCENE

Each fall at the Women Who Mean Business Awards luncheon, ABiz convenes hundreds of women of distinction in business, professional, education, and non-profit sectors to commemorate the successes and challenges they share. This marked the 15th year for the inspiring event, with nine new honorees and two Trailblazers, a nod to women who are now retired or semi-retired but paved the way for the current generation of leaders. Almost 40 past honorees attended.

Acceptance speeches are often humorous, sometimes moving and always informative. This year they were particularly inspirational. Trailblazer Maugie Pastor spoke of her decades in the hospitality industry throughout the South, eight children in tow. Sherry LeBas reminisced about her career in collegiate sports, having carved an excellent program for women at UL as the NCAA made it possible across the U.S. Stephanie Mitchell Bernard, today head of Black Catholic Ministries for the Diocese of Lafayette, shared memories as a teen, relegated to the back pews of the church where she worshipped in rural Vermilion Parish.

IberiaBank and LHC Group are presenting sponsors for the luncheon. Supporting sponsors Courtesy Motors and Paul Michael Company joined sustaining sponsors River Oaks Catering and Event Center and Paul's Jewelry to make the day even more special for all who attended the fall fête.

- 1) Rhonda Babin, Airgas regional manager
- 2) 15th Judicial District Judge Susan Theall
- 3) Attorney Rebekah Huggins
- 4) Sandra Billeaudeau, assistant superintendent for Lafayette Parish public schools
- 5) Doerle Foods CEO Carolyn Doerle-Schumacher
- 6) Stephanie Mitchell Bernard, director of the Lafayette Diocese Black Catholic Ministries
- 7) Trailblazer Sherry LeBas
- 8) Lorrie Toups, CFO, Lafayette Consolidated Government
- 9) Mandi Mitchell, government relations consulting
- 10) Trailblazer Maugie Pastor
- 11) The Pastor Posse gathers around Maugie
- 12) Judge Susan Theall, Penny Rogers, Susan Holiday and Tammy DeRouen (front row); Claire Oliver, Larry Curtis, Rebekah Huggins and Marianna Broussard
- 13) Women Who Mean Business, Class of 2012
- 14) Lafayette Consolidated Government colleagues honor their CFO Lorrie Toups (center).
- 15) Past WWMB honoree and IberiaBank VP Beth Ardoin with Mandi Mitchell, Lorrie Toups, Maugie Pastor and past-honoree Elaine Abell.

CONGRATULATIONS

CAROLYN DOERLE SCHUMACHER

OUR WOMAN WHO MEANS BUSINESS

DOERLE

FOOD SERVICES, L.L.C.

FROM YOUR FAMILY, FRIENDS AND STAFF
OF DOERLE FOOD SERVICES

WWW.DOERLEFOODS.COM

113 Kol Drive
Broussard, LA

4980 Flournoy Lucas Road
Shreveport, LA

196 16th Street
Golden Meadow, LA

1465 E. Sam Houston Parkway
Houston, TX